CNET INSTRUCTION 1610.2

Subj: OFFICER MISCONDUCT REPORTING

1. Purpose. To require a report of all instances involving accusation of, or suspected officer misconduct of, any commissioned officer within the Naval Education and Training Command (NAVEDTRACOM).

2. Background. Chief of Naval Education and Training (CNET) has an interest in all incidents relating to apparent misconduct in military or civilian contexts (other than minor civilian traffic offenses) by any commissioned officer in the NAVEDTRACOM.

3. Action

a. All NAVEDTRACOM activities shall adhere strictly to these reporting requirements. CNET requires notification of all apparent misconduct in military or civilian contexts (other than minor civilian traffic offenses) by any commissioned officer within the NAVEDTRACOM.

b. Commands shall submit initial reports promptly, without waiting for a final disposition of charges, and ensure that the chain of command is notified.

c. Reports should be made by the fastest method using telephone, facsimile, or message and making sure that all commands in the chain of command are notified. Reports should be made to CNET Staff Judge Advocate (Code 00J) or, after hours, to the Staff Duty Officer. Extreme care must be exercised in reporting these matters to ensure that unwarranted disclosures do not occur.

d. No interference is intended with the prerogatives of subordinate commanders, commanding officers, and officers in charge in processing administrative, disciplinary, and military justice matters.

4. Report. Report control symbol CNET 1610-1 has been assigned to subject report and is approved for 3 years from the date of change transmittal 1.
